Copy of a letter No.307 dated the 15th April 1922 from the Financial Secretary to Government to Mr.T.Thumboo Chetty, Ag. Huzur Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Your letter of yesterday. I think that instructions from the Comptroller are necessary for your claiming as acting Huzur Secretary the salary which you were drawing as Assistant Secretary I understand, that the Comptroller will, on the strength of existing orders, authorise you to draw only the pay of Rs.800/- as acting Deputy Commissioner, as he has no definite orders regarding the rate of allowances that can be drawn by you as acting Huzur Secretary. As the Treasury would require instructions from the Comptroller to pass your pay bill, I shall pass on your letter to the Comptroller, if you want orders to be issued to the Treasury.

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. T. Thumboo Chetty, Assistant Secretary to His Highness, having been appointed acting Huzur Secretary, the question of his emoluments in the acting appointment is awaiting orders.

2. When Mr. P. Raghavendra Rao was appointed Huzur Secretary in April 1909, his salary was fixed at Rs.800-100-1200. On his appointment as Excise Commissioner and the appointment of Mr. Mirza M. Ismail as Huzur Secretary in February 1914, the pay of the latter was fixed at Rs.800 in the grade -- Rs.800-50-1200. Subsequently the scale was changed to Rs.800-100-1200, and he was permitted to draw Rs.90 from 1st July 1915 (after he had put in 1 year and 4½ months as Huzur Secretary, besides 9 months previously put in as acting Huzur Secretary). His salary as Huzur Secretary was raised to Rs.1400 from 1st July 1918. The Huzur Secretary has all along been also given a staff allowance of Rs.200 in addition to pay.

3. It is thus seen that the pay of the appointment has not been definitely fixed, but it may be said that the pay has been generally regarded as Rs.800-100-1200 plus a staff allowance of Rs.200. This pay seems suitable.

4. As Assistant Secretary to His Highness Mr. Thumboo Chetty's salary is his grade pay in the Civil Service plus a staff allowance of Rs.100 plus a duty allowance of Rs.100 and a local allowance of Rs.100. As he has for some time been officiating as Deputy Commissioner his grade pay is Rs.800, and his net emoluments amount to Rs.800 plus 300 in the shape of allowances.

(9)

5. Strictly under the Mysore Service Regulations, Mr. Thumboo Chetty as Huzur Secretary can draw only the minimum salary of the appointment, viz., Rs.800 plus 200 staff allowance. But as this will fall short of his emoluments hitherto drawn as Assistant Secretary, and as he has already acted as Huzur Secretary for over 10 months (from November 1915 to September 1916), I am of opinion that as acting Huzur Secretary he may now be allowed to draw acting pay at Rs.900 in the grade Rs.800-100-1200 together with the staff allowance of Rs.200 attached to the post. This will give him the same net emoluments as he has latterly been drawing as Assistant Secretary; but with the difference that a portion of the allowance now becomes part of acting pay. If however, His Highness is graciously pleased to sanction a rise in the total emoluments in view of increased responsibility, Mr. Thumboo Chetty may draw Rs.1000 in the grade and Rs.200 staff allowance.

6. I solicit His Highness' orders in the matter. Meantime for the month of April, the Comptroller has been asked, pending final orders of Government, to allow Mr. Thumboo Chetty to draw the same emoluments as he was drawing previously as Assistant Secretary to His Highness.
